

Photo analysis questions

1. Are there any people featured in the photograph? If so, what do they appear to be doing?
2. How would you describe the scenery in the photograph?
3. Do you notice any towns or cities in the background of the photograph?
4. If the road is visible in your photo, how does it compare in size to other roads you are familiar with, such as highways, interstates, or city streets?
5. Read the description below the photograph to see if you can learn more about what's going on in the picture. What new information does the description include?
6. Is there anything else you notice about this photograph?